Before returning to DelMarVa to work for Paul Reed Smith Guitars in 2003, Delaware native Gerry Devine enjoyed a long career as a recording artist and songwriter in New York and Nashville. He won the BMI/New York Music Award for Best New Songwriter in 1989 which led to a recording contract with Gadfly Records. His debut release was the critically acclaimed "Fire Lane" which garnered extensive airplay on College radio and resulted in an offer of a songwriting contract in Nashville where he moved in 1996. This show will be a benefit for the Talbot County Senior Center Meals on Wheels Program.
